Solomon Lutheran Church Cemetery, also known as Cove Creek Church.

Solomon is listed in the North Carolina Revolutionary War Accounts. On June 12, 1783, he was issued specie of sixteen pounds in Sullivan and Washington Counties, North Carolina". Today, this area has become East Tennessee.

By 1810, Solomon is shown in Captain Thomas Wilson's Militia District owning 200 acres on Cove Creek in Greene County.

Solomon's son, Phillip, served in Captain Robert McCalpin's Company in the War of 1812.

Solomon died in 1824 when his Will was probated in the April Sessions Greene County Court.
